

Figure 1: Sketch of the scattering of a uniform beam of particles with flux per unit area φ impinging on a thin target of thickness dx and total area A . The scattering centers are shown as black dots in the target. The cross-section of each scatterer is labeled σ .

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons
“Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International” license.

