

Figure 1: Sketch of the scattering of a uniform beam of particles with flux per unit area  $\varphi$  impinging on a thin target of thickness  $dx$  and total area  $A$ . The scattering centers are shown as black dots in the target. The cross-section of each scatterer is labeled  $\sigma$ .