

Figure 1: A comparison of the experimental black-body data with the Rayleigh-Jeans and the Planck theories. The experimental points illustrate data at a temperature $T = 1646^\circ\text{C}$.